

APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

6 January 2022: 3D Metalforge (ASX: 3MF) (3D Metalforge or the Company), a revenue generating Additive Manufacturing company, is pleased to announce the appointment of Srikrishnan (Sri) Vaidyanathan as Chief Financial Officer.

Sri is a senior financial executive with 28+ years of global and Australian experience in the industrial and engineering sectors with a broad skillset spanning financial management, operations and strategic execution. Sri is currently, and will continue to be based in Perth, WA in order to be close to 3D Metalforge's Australian focus and investment community.

He was most recently Regional CFO Asia Pacific for Perth-headquartered Altrad Services, an international leader in the provision of industrial services to the oil and gas, mining, minerals, chemical and power sectors, with $850m in annual revenue and ~ 10,000 employees¹. Under his leadership, the company achieved five-fold revenue growth and a $15m decrease in annual overheads. Prior to that, he held the role of Financial Controller at construction engineering company AusGroup (mkt cap $70m) with $195m in annual revenue² and 1,000 employees and was also Financial Controller at global shipbuilding company Austal (mkt cap $700m) with $1.5bn in annual revenue³ and 5,500 employees.

In alignment with 3D Metalforge's strategic objectives, Former Chief Financial Officer, Harry Heng, will take a new position covering Strategic Development within the Company.

3D Metalforge CEO, Matthew Waterhouse said: "I am delighted to announce the appointment of Sri Vaidyanathan as our Chief Financial Officer, who will be based in Perth, Australia. Sri's broad financial management and commercial expertise in the Australian market will be extremely valuable to 3D Metalforge as we focus on delivering our longer-term growth strategy. I also take the opportunity to thank our former Chief Financial Officer, Harry Heng, for his hard work and support in the role, as he takes on a new Strategic Development position within the firm."
